

CIUDAD DE MÉXICO

ROMA CONDESA

LA CONDESA. A neighborhood dating from the early 20th century, mixing houses from that period with modern constructions and with large parks and tree-lined streets. Evenings see a bohemian atmosphere pervade, with restaurants, bars and venues for live music and dancing. Visit the streets of Amsterdam, Tamaulipas, Nuevo León and Michoacán to savor Arabian, Argentine, Italian, French, Cuban, Japanese, Mediterranean and Mexican food. You'll also find small clothing boutiques, bookstores and other stores selling a wide variety of items.

LA ROMA. The streets of the Roma neighborhood, which dates from the late Porfirio Díaz era (1876-1911), were named after the cities visited by the Orrin Circus, owned by E.W. Orrin, a partner in the real estate firm that built this area and whose houses were built in art nouveau, neo-classical and more eclectic styles. Today the Roma is one of the city's most cosmopolitan areas, with numerous restaurants, bars, cafés, bookstores and cultural centers frequented by both residents and visitors alike.
