BOSQUE DE CHAPULTEPEC PASEO DE LA REFORMA

CHAPULTEPEC ("Grasshopper Hill" in Náhuatl). Chapultepec Forest is one of the world's largest, most beautiful and most visited city parks. It's divided into three sections and contains museums, restaurants, green areas, children's playgrounds, a zoo and forums for cultural events and shows, such as the Auditorio Nacional, the Centro Cultural del Bosque and the Casa del Lago. Its beauty is enhanced by a man-made lake where you can rent boats.

PASEO DE LA REFORMA. One of the city's major thoroughfares and most beautiful boulevards, it dates from the era of the emperor Maximilian of Habsburg, who had it built to link Chapultepec Castle with the National Palace in the Zócalo. Reforma features traffic circles with statues and monuments, and temporary exhibitions, fairs and diverse cultural events are held on the broad and leafy sidewalks.
